PROF. COOKMAN AND BRIDE HERE

ELABORATE CEREMONY HELD IN ELIZABETH, N. J., WITH TWO HUNDRED GUESTS

RECEPTION, DANCE

YOUNG COUPLE ARE NOW AT HOME IN GLENDALE AT 215 S. PACIFIC AVENUE

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cookman arrived in Glendale Tuesday afternoon from Elizabeth, N. J. Mr. Cookman, instructor of science and hygiene at the Glendale union high school, left Glendale December 15 for the east, where he married Miss Rebecca Clark, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigourney Fay Clark, 902 North Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on the evening of December 23, Rev. Dr. Louis B. Crane, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, officiating.

The following account is taken, in part from the Elizabeth, N. J. News:

The Clark home was elaborately and attractively decorated for the event, Christmas greens and white roses having been effectively combined, while the entire house was lighted with softly-shaded candles. The ceremony was performed at the end of the living room before a bower of Christmas greens and roses.

Wears Mother's Wedding Gown

The bride was gowned in white crepe meteor combined with duchess lace, which had been worn by ner mother at her wedding. The dress was cut with a long train, over which fell her tulle veil, which was arranged in cap effect with orange blossoms and duchess lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses arranged in shower effect with white jasmine.

The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Clark, a sister of the bride, who wore wisteria chiffon over blue chiffon with a girdle effect of silver and wisteria. The bouquet was of roses and fuchsias. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Halsted of Germantown and Mrs. John Perrine, who wore gowns of orchid chiffon and silver lace. Their bouquets were of Ophelia roses. The bride's mother wore black tulle combined with jet.

Professor Cookman had as his best man Earl Thompson of Los Angeles, who is the world's champion hurdler and winner of the Olympics in Belgium. His ushers were Harper Silliman of New York, John Perrine of Boston, Lincoln Clark of Westfield

WATER SERVICE

EXTENSIONS TO BE MADE IF ENTIRE DEPOSIT REQUIRED IS PAID AT ONE TIME

Relative to a request from Anthony Ambrosini that water service of Glendale be given him on Fairview avenue in the city of Eagle Rock, T. W. Watson, at the last meeting of the board of city trustees reported as follows:

"Anthony Ambrosini has requested water service on Fairview avenue in the city of Eagle Rock. Fairview avenue is situated just east of the east boundary of the city of Glendale between Broadway and Colorado street. This portion of Eagle Rock is served by the Glendale water department. In order to furnish this service there will have to be laid a four-inch fourteen-gauge, riveted steel water main extending from Colorado street to Broadway, a distance of 660 feet, the cost of which is estimated to be $692.95.

Owners Must Pay Cost

"I would respectfully recommend that this water main be laid by the city of Glendale with the understanding that the cost thereof will be paid by the owners of property to be served thereby. Mr. Ambrosini is asking for an extension of time in which to pay for this improvement as set forth in his letter attached hereto. This I told him would be subject to whatever action your board desired to take in regard thereto. It is the usual custom in such instances to require a deposit covering the estimated cost."

Trustee Spencer Robinson took the position that the entire amount of the estimate should be deposited with the city and the other trustees sustained him.

Th board decided to permit the work to be done provided the deposit was made in full; it was declared that the board did not desire to form the policy of receiving installment payments.

FIRE DOES OVER HALF MILLION DAMAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Fire did more than a half million dollars' damage to the plant of the Otis Elevator Construction company in Stockton street here early today. Warehouses, machine shops and quantities of hardwood lumber were burned and large stocks of steel were severely damaged. Twenty fire companies were called out to fight the flames. An investigation has been started to determine whether the fire was of incendiary origin.

JAPAN DECLINES TO COMMENT ON PLAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOKIO, Jan. 6.—The Japanese foreign office today declined to comment on the reported plan for extension of the California anti-alien land law to all aliens. Observers here, however, believed that if such legislation passes, Japan will have no ground for complaint as protests have been based entirely on the ground of discrimination.

ABANDONS HIS OPPOSITION TO MEASURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee, today abandoned his opposition to the Fordney emergency tariff bill, and announced he would support and push it to passage at the present session of congress.

BURGLARS TAKE PICK OF STORE'S STOCK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—Burglars broke into the merchandise store of A. Kaufman in Main street early today and stole shirts, undergarments and various other apparel valued at about $1000. They took only the choicest articles in Kaufman's store.

MRS. PEETE ASSERTS SHE DID NOT KILL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—Mrs. R. C. Peete, in a statement issued from the county jail and signed by her, denies she killed Jacob C. Denton.

PLAN PROBE OF PROHIBITION OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—It is reported here today that a resolution will be introduced in the house demanding a nation-wide investigation of prohibition officials.

Visit Here, Won By City, Buy Lot, Will Build Home Shortly

Mrs. Clarence O. Smith of 312 North Kenwood called up The Evening News office this morning to ask if it was too late to get new names in the 1921 city directory. When regretfully informed that it was, she said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Riley, who came out here recently from Milwaukee, Wis., to spend the winter, had been here only a few days when Glendale's charms had so grown upon them that they made up their minds that here was where they wanted to spend the remainder of their days, so they proceeded to look around for a lot to build a residence on.

They found one that just suited them on Wilson avenue, near Adams, and at once bought it. They will return to Milwaukee in the early spring to dispose of their business interests and residence property, then come to Glendale and build a nice home on their lot.

READING CIRCLE

MUTUAL BENEFIT MEMBERS IN SESSION HEAR REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Fifty ladies attended the meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle, which was held at the library yesterday. In the morning reports of different committees were received. A note from Mrs. Sampson, formerly of Glendale, was read, notifying the Glendale circle of the establishment of a new reading circle at Hermosa, of which she has been elected president. Mrs. Sampson stated that the organization of the circle was due to the efforts of Mrs. Solomon. A bit of wit contained in the note was the statement of Mrs. Sampson that, with the wisdom of Solomon and the strength of Sampson, the new circle should be a success.

Mrs. Danford greeted the reading circle with an original New Year's poem. Reading of the new book, "The Essentials of Character," by Sisson, was continued in the afternoon.

Here Is Chance To Send Story Of Float To Eastern Friends

Because of the many demands made by Glendale people anxious to send copies of The Evening News of last Monday, in which was a complete story of the city's prize-winning float in the parade at Pasadena, to Eastern friends, the entire edition is exhausted.

But The Evening News has had prepared a full re-print of the story of the float and this is available to all who may desire it. The story is neatly printed on slips of paper, suitable for enclosing in letters to Eastern friends.

Any desiring the slips may have them by applying at this office. Already a number of them have been spoken for and others wishing them will have to act immediately, as the supply is limited.

CHARTER DRAFT

BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS TO MEET TONIGHT; DELAY IN DELIVERY OF COPIES

Called by Bert P. Woodard, chairman, the board of freeholders will meet in Judge Lowe's department at the city hall at 7:45 o'clock tonight for the purpose of considering a completed draft of the proposed city charter.

Contrary to announced plans, the completed draft of the charter was not distributed to all of the members of the board of freeholders yesterday or today that they might read it over before attending tonight's session. It was stated today that the drafting committee could not finish the work in time. Sixteen copies of the charter have been made and two stenographers are working on them, it is stated.

The work of the drafting committee will be submitted to the entire board at tonight's meeting and, unless it is voted to make changes in the draft, it is probable it will be adopted, then filed with the city clerk, after which the board of trustees will call a special election to permit the voters to pass on the suggested municipal changes.

THORNYCROFT'S GUESTS HAPPY

HAPPY CHRISTMAS IS GIVEN FORMER SOLDIERS SEEKING TO REGAIN HEALTH

LEGION GIVES HELP

ELKS OF GLENDALE SECURE POOL AND BILLIARD TABLE FOR HOLIDAY GIFT

One's first impression, on visiting Thornycroft, out at the end of East Windsor Road, is a feeling of sadness. More than sixty young men are there—ex-soldiers, the glory of our race but a few short months ago; now they live to suffer—gassed, most of them, and consequently their lungs are so impaired as to render them invalids, or semi-invalids. One cannot help wondering whether, like Ulysses, they feel

"How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rest unburnished, not to shine in use!
As though to breathe were life."

No doubt these boys, having ambitions and the long, long dreams of youth, sometimes fret in moments of weakness and gloom that they are forced "to rest unburnished, not to shine in use." But this mood is by no means habitual with them. Their cheerfulness and courage are amazing.

It is one thing to charge the foe

REDISTRICTING

ASSEMBLYMAN WHITE IS IN FAVOR OF ACTION AT SPECIAL SESSION

Redistricting of the state, by which southern California will receive an increase of senators and assemblymen, due to the increase in population, is receiving consideration at Sacramento among the legislators.

According to dispatches from Sacramento, John Robert White, assemblyman from the sixty-first district, which includes Glendale, is in favor of carrying the redistricting question over to a special session of the legislature. He is one of the many assemblymen who fears the expected conflict over the redistricting measures will interfere with the other business of the legislature and is urging it be taken up at a special session.

The northern legislators are expected to oppose the south's redistricting plans. One of the arguments in favor of delay is that action at Sacramento should follow similar action at Washington. Congress is not expected to act on the question until after March 4.

Bill May Solve Difficulty

It is, however, possible that a bill presented yesterday in the senate, regarded largely as an administration measure, may prevent a break between the north and the south. The bill gives Los Angeles county six more assemblymen and two more senators.

The measure means the loss of one senator and one assemblyman for the San Francisco delegation.

WELCOME VISITOR

MRS. FRANK EVANS, UTICA, N. Y., IS GREETED AT PARTY IN W. S. INGRAM HOME

Mrs. W. S. Ingram entertained a group of neighborhood friends at a pleasant but informal afternoon today in her home, 336 West Broadway, having called them together to meet and greet Mrs. Frank Evans of Utica, N. Y., who, with her little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, is the house guest of Mrs. Jacob Schremp, 342 West Broadway. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Schremp are sisters.

The guests also greeted Mrs. Lloyd Bradley who, as Miss Esther Schremp, was one of the brides of the holiday season and who but recently returned from her wedding trip to San Diego.

Mrs. Ingram was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Jean Ingram.

Those invited were Mrs. Emma L. Wood, Mrs. Lloyd Bradley, Mrs. Jacob Schremp, Mrs. O. B. Barnett, Mrs. C. F. Parker, Mrs. Walter Mullen, Mrs. T. S. Caldwell, Mrs. Andrew Neilsen, Mrs. Elna Peterson, Mrs. J. A. McKelvey, Mrs. J. H. Sherman, Mrs. A. C. Read, Mrs. LeRoy Wittenberg, Mary Elizabeth Evans, Mrs. Kathryne Jones of Burbank and Mrs. Wm. Wachtell of Los Angeles.

ENEMIES MAY KEEP HOOVER FROM CABINET

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MARION, O., Jan. 6.—Political enemies may succeed in keeping Herbert Hoover out of the Harding cabinet, according to information here today. He had been tentatively slated for a post, probably labor, but activities among his political opponents recently has become so strong as to create a serious doubt in the mind of President-elect Harding about appointing him. Harding holds the former food administrator in high regard and believes he would be a valuable man in the cabinet. Among those opposed to Hoover are Senator Penrose and Senator Hiram Johnson, one an old guard leader and the other the foremost of progressives.

CROWDER ARRIVES IN CUBA TO PROBE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 6.—General Enoch Crowder, of the United States army, arrived here today on the warship Minnesota to investigate the Cuban situation, complicated by a dispute over the result of the presidential election. Salute marked the Minnesota's arrival. Crowder planned to confer with President Menocal this afternoon or tomorrow.

NORTHERN SENATOR IS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CAPITOL, Sacramento, Jan. 6.—Senator Thomas Ingram of Grass Valley was appointed chairman of the reapportionment committee of the state senate, it was announced today by President of the Senate C. C. Young. Not one senator from Los Angeles city was placed on the committee.

LORD MAYOR OF CORK OUT ON PAROLE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who arrived a few days ago as a stowaway, was paroled today by Secretary of Labor Wilson on his own recognizance pending decision of his case.

Hears Chickens Cry, Investigates, Makes Live Deer Prisoner

A. B. Craig resides at 910 Cypress avenue, Burbank, where he raises chickens. The other night he heard them squawk. He investigated and found in the chicken yard a live deer that had wandered down from the hills. He shut the yard gate and made the deer a prisoner.

BOARD MAY ACT

CANDIDATE TO TAKE SEAT AS TRUSTEE MAY BE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT

It is possible that at the meeting of the city trustees tonight a candidate to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Hartley Shaw to become city attorney, will be nominated and elected. The trustees have the power to fill the vacancy without calling a special election.

Several probable candidates are being discussed at the city hall, but so far none of the trustees have intimated who has been decided upon, if anyone.

The names of Frank H. Vesper, Bert Woodard, Geo. B. Woodberry, J. S. Thompson and L. T. Rowley are being mentioned in connection with the vacancy.

Some residents of the western section of the city are urging that a candidate be selected from that district.

Trustee Dwight Stephenson, newly elected president of the board, will tonight preside for the first complete session since his being placed at the head of the municipality last Thursday night.

KEEP OPEN HOUSE

MORE THAN FIFTY GUESTS ARE GIVEN WELCOME AT FIELD HOME NEW YEAR'S

Among those who observed the friendly old time custom of keeping open house on New Year's day was Mr. Field, of 601 East Maple.

More than forty guests enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon, one of which was the inspection of the many and valuable curios which have been collected by Mr. Field in his travels.

Mrs. McLaughlin L. White, 519 East Raleigh street, poured. Among the guests were many from Hollywood and Los Angeles.

WEATHER FORECAST

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6—The official weather forecast: Tonight and Friday cloudy and threatening. Cooler in east portion tonight.

People Sending Checks To Clear Deficit On Glendale Float Fund

Already a number of subscribers to the city's float fund have signified a willingness to double their subscriptions in order that the deficit of about $450 in the committee's treasury may be removed and the prize-winning display go into history clear of all indebtedness.

Also, several people who did not give to the original fund have come to this office with checks for the committee. It is probable that the list of those doubling their subscriptions and, too, the names of the new subscribers will be published in a day or so.

In the meantime, people are declaring that the deficit must be cleared away at once and are preparing to bring in their checks to this office.

BOARD MEETING

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH OFFICIALS MEET; J. M. RAY RE-ELECTED CHAIRMAN

The first meeting of the year of the Central Christian church's official board was held Monday night. John M. Ray was re-elected chairman and Cleo Stoler, secretary. A. B. Heacock was chosen vice-president. Reports read showed that everything was in a flourishing condition and prospects bright for the future.

Wednesday night the usual church supper was held at 6 o'clock with about seventy attending. This was followed by the Bible study, on the book of Romans, at which forty or more were present. The regular prayermeeting followed.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK

REAL ESTATE IS ACTIVE, IS EXPERIENCE OF A. J. LUCAS, GLENDALE DEALER

That conditions in Glendale are bright with promise, the experience reported by one real estate dealer may be taken as an index. This week he has sold P. B. Music's place at 210 East Garfield avenue to Fred S. Wilkins, M. Graves' residence at 605 Vine to H. Clawitter and the Currier place in the Fillinger tract, Parkdale avenue, to Thomas Bush.

A. J. Lucas, 309 South Brand, is the dealer referred to and he gives credit for much of his success to classified ads in The Evening News.

WEDDED 5 DAYS, BIGAMY CHARGE

EMIL SPITZER, LOCAL AGENT FOR PIANO COMPANY, IS PLACED UNDER ARREST

WIFE NO. 1 ACCUSES

JAILED MAN IS CLAIMED TO HAVE ISSUED NUMBER OF CHECKS WITHOUT FUNDS

Emil Spitzer, in charge of the recently opened Glendale branch of the Kohler & Chase Piano company of Los Angeles, was arrested here yesterday afternoon on the charge of bigamy. Glendale police assisted in the arrest.

When Spitzer's wife, Mrs. Edith Spitzer, 1918 La Salle street, Los Angeles, was told by a furrier who called at her home to say that a check for $200, given by her husband for a fur coat he bought for her was fictitious, she grew suspicious, for he had bought no coat for her. When other bogus checks were presented by other wrathy merchants, Mrs. Spitzer retained Attorneys Ford & Bodkin and the Belger Detective agency. Then she found out about "the other woman," and certain actions of her husband's, she says, led her to believe he wished to get rid of her. She avers that she even feared for her life and was so convinced that her husband intended killing her that she made her will.

Spitzer bought a diamond ring for $135 from the Walker jewelry store on East Broadway, giving a check on a Los Angeles bank where he had $6 on deposit. It is expected that the ring will be recovered.

Married Here on New Year's

Mrs. Spitzer hired detectives to obtain evidence of forgery against her husband and was shocked when she learned that he was charged with bigamy. Justice H. M. Miller, who performed a marriage ceremony here for Emil Spitzer and Marjorie Sims, of Taft, on New Year's day, was also shocked when Sims was arraigned before him yesterday afternoon and refused to believe it until the real Mrs. Sims produced her marriage license, dated November 10, 1912.

Mrs. Sims No. 2 appears to have been shocked as much as the real Mrs. Sims and the judge, for when

SEEK HOME HERE

MR. AND MRS. JOHN T. SMITH OF BROOKLYN DECIDE TO LOCATE PERMANENTLY

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Smith, who resided at 338 West California Ave. for the summer and left for Brooklyn the latter part of September to settle their business affairs, arrived in Glendale yesterday morning and will locate here permanently. They have shipped their furniture and are staying at Hotel Gray until it arrives and they find a suitable location.

Mr. Smith dclares that Glendale has won both him and his wife and they decided to dispose of their affairs in Brooklyn in order that they might have the permanent benefits of southern California. It is probable they will purchase a home here shortly.

The following interesting incident occurred in connection with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Clem Moore, 360 West California avenue, who are friends of long standing both of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, had been notified to meet them at the station in South Glendale. Upon arriving there Mr. Moore was notified that since the government had returned the railroads the trains did not stop there.

Drops Message from Train

When the train came through the porter dropped an envelope containing a message for Mr. and Mrs. Moore, who did not stop to read it, but immediately jumped into their automobile and started for the station in Los Angeles. They arrived there before the train, much to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who questioned them as to how they did it. Mrs. Moore promptly replied, "Glendale is the fastest-growing city in the United States, so Glendale people do things rather quickly."

Mr. Smith came into the office of The Evening News to renew his subscription yesterday afternoon. He had been having it sent to his Eastern address until the first of December and said that they had greatly missed the paper just the short time from then to their departure for California, and now that they were here they just simply could not do without it.

CANDY STORE HIS UNDOING

CHICAGO—Paul Fisher is "a orphant," 13 years old, and he decided to run away from the Illinois Children's home and make his own way without idea of the equipment necessary for a business start, so he acquired a revolver, a check book and some small change. This was easy. He simply climbed through a window and took the articles and was off to conquer the world.

His career might not have ended so abruptly had he not encountered a candy store and he threw discretion to the winds.

"I want some candy," he told Nicholas Gopoculous, the proprietor. "I guess maybe I want $400 worth."

"But can you pay?" demanded Gopoculous.

"Sure thing," said Paul, producing his check book. "I've got a million dollars, I guess."

He wrote out a check for $400 and Gopoculous asked him to wait until he went out and got a box large enough to hold the candy. When he returned a policeman accompanied him. Paul produced his revolver, but the policeman took it away. Today he is back in the home again and the career of a budding criminal has been blasted because he pined for candy.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bancroft of 125 West Laurel street had as their guests for the holidays Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bancroft of Uplands.

Miss Ethel Golden, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boothby, 348 West Lexington drive, returned to her home in Oakland Sunday.

Miss Pauline Moreno of Hotel Gray was a guest at a New Year's party in Los Angeles and also at a dinner party given in Hollywood Tuesday evening.

Installations of electric light meters were ordered yesterday by Mrs. A. E. Betts, 128 West Palmer avenue, and F. Owen, 911 Melrose avenue.

Mrs. P. H. Bovard of 547 Salem street has as her guests for the winter her mother and niece, Mrs. T. W. Hiatt and Miss Hazel Shimp of Greenfield, Ohio.

Vesta Betz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Betz, 405 Hawthorne street, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks with bronchitis, is now able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue have as their guests Mrs. Dye and daughter, Miss Selma Dye, of Phoenix, Arizona. Richard Crippen of San Diego was also a recent visitor.

Reginald Courtney Jenkins, Jr., three-weeks'-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jenkins of 1423 South Brand boulevard, was christened yesterday at Duarte by the Catholic bishop from Los Angeles.

F. W. Fisher has moved to 306 North Cedar, C. R. Colburn to 457 West Dryden, John Camphouse from 612 West Elk avenue to 217 East Maple, A. M. Robarts from 1011 North Brand boulevard to 247 Howard.

L. W. Russell, of the Russell Furniture factory, 1531-1533 South San Fernando road, who has been living at 101 North Cedar until the new residence at 911 Orange Grove avenue could be completed, is moving his family today into the new home.

Mrs. G. C. Krebs of 136 North Cedar street has returned from a month's visit at the six hundred acre ranch of her son-in-law, Russell Barker, which is located at Madero, about thirty miles from Yosemite Park.

The new year shows no diminution in the number of violations of the traffic laws by motorists. Judge Lowe disposed of between forty and fifty of such cases Monday and there are thirty-three on his docket for tomorrow.

I. E. Watts, proprietor of the sorghum factory near the San Fernando road, between Glendale and Burbank, reported to the Glendale police that his car, a nearly new Hudson speedster, was stolen from in front of the factory last evening.

Mrs. J. T. Haddock, 1018 North Louise street, entertained a number of her former neighbors at a quilting party and dinner yesterday. The guests were Mrs. George Ward, Mrs. M. R. Sherman, Mrs. W. G. Collins, Miss Collins, Mrs. Herbert Wheeler, Mrs. Ed Smith and daughter, and Mrs. C. R. Norton.

Mrs. C. H. Beggs, 1107 North Louise street, entertained at a six-course luncheon yesterday. The guests were Mesdames Wm. Cutler of Glendale, Harry Harrison, J. H. Faircloth, Russell Berry, and J. W. Beard of Los Angeles. Table decorations were of violets, with corsage bouquets of violets and maiden-hair fern. The afternoon was spent in music.

Thomas V. Philp, who came to Glendale from Chicago via automobile to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Volney E. Philp, of 221 North Orange street, about two months ago, has decided to remain in this city. He has accepted a position with the L. J. Christopher company in Los Angeles. While in Chicago Mr. Philp had charge of the garage of the Chapell Ice Cream company.

W. Emmett Galvin arrived in Glendale last Friday from Albany, New York, where he had been located for eight years as a representative of the Cheney Silk company of New York City, to spend a few days with his brother Ray of 204 South Orange. He had been sent out here by his company to take care of the Pacific coast trade, with headquarters at San Francisco, to which city he went the first of the week.

Mrs. Robert Cullen, 520 North Maryland avenue, entertained at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Alf Goulding, who has rented her home in Glendale and taken apartments at the Prince Rupert in Los Angeles. The guests were Mrs. Alf Goulding, Mrs. R. L. Young, Mrs. Thos. Lingham, Mrs. Ronald Bradbury, Mrs. T. J. Kelleher, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Witby, Mrs. Eddie Hearne and Mrs. Geo. H. Melford of Hollywood, and Mrs. Mildred Hurst of Los Angeles. Christmas decorations were used throughout the house.

Guy LeRoy Rowe and wife, who lived at 624 South Central avenue for some months past, moved to San Diego yesterday.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, attended a meeting at the Presbyterian church in Anaheim this afternoon.

Arthur Schrader, a student at the University of California at Berkeley was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly, 215 South Kenilworth avenue, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Scudder, 320 West Harvard street, have as their guests Mrs. M. Jennings and daughter Sadie, who arrived this noon from Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Stimson of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fisher of 400 West Colorado street had as their luncheon guests today Miss Genevieve Reynolds and Miss Agnes Scott, both of the Robert Mantell company, which is now playing in Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. D. Cady and her sister, Miss Martha Cox, who came down from Santa Barbara with A. F. Webster and family last week, decided to remain in Glendale, so they leased the large residence at 624 South Central avenue and are now located there. They are sisters of Mrs. Webster.

Mrs. E. Marcher of 1140 San Rafael was the guest of honor at a birthday party given as a surprise to her Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John W. Cotton, 1137 San Rafael, by her neighbors living on San Rafael between Dryden and Stocker streets. She was 82 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kuntzner, 829 Ross street, were guests at a five hundred party in Los Angeles on Tuesday evening, where Mrs. Kuntzner was the winner of the high score. The party was given by a club to which the Kuntzners belong, most of whose members are old college friends.

Reverend Father J. S. O'Neill is attending the meeting of the Priests' Eucharistic league in Los Angeles today. Pontifical high mass was celebrated this morning at the cathedral, with Right Reverend John J. Cantwell, bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles, as celebrant. The Holy Hour in honor of the Blessed Sacrament was conducted this afternoon.

Architect Arthur G. Lindley informed The Evening News today that he had been commissioned by the First M. E. congregation at Artesia to prepare working plans for a new $25,000 building, in mission style. It is to be of frame and plaster construction, with concrete basement, social hall, banquet room and kitchen, also departmental Sunday school rooms. The auditorium will seat 500 people. Mr. Lindley says he is also preparing plans for a new M. E. church building at Garden Grove, Spanish style, to cost $40,000 or more. There will be an unusually large social hall, so fitted as to be used for community meetings. It will seat 700 people.

Lecture Well Attended

The lecture given at Tanner & Hall's salesroom last night by Alvin E. Sanders was attended by about 150 people. Tomorrow night the seating capacity will be increased in the hope that no one who wants to hear the second lecture of the series will have to stand.

Mr. Sanders convinced all his hearers that he is an expert in the construction of motor engines. His explanations and practical demonstrations were so concise and plain that those present found the subject not at all complicated and difficult to understand.

As Mr. Sanders said last night, "If you attend this series of lectures you will know how to locate the trouble in your engine, whether it is a Ford or the highest-priced motor."

AT THORNYCROFT

PLEASANT SURROUNDINGS ARE GREAT HELP IN BATTLE TO REGAIN HEALTH

heroically on the battlefield, sustained by the excitement of the fray, the courage of comrades, the urge to win. How much more heroic to cheerfully endure life after the battles have all been won at the cost of health and strength; to patiently endure pain and the disappointment of having one's life plans shattered, be obliged to merely live on, "as though to breathe were life."

Unwritten Victories There

These are the unwritten victories of many a Thornycroft boy. No one but his guardian angel and his God knows about it—except as it is reflected in his brave, cheerful demeanor.

"The tumult and the shouting dies, the captains and the kings depart," we hold impressive memorial services for those who fell in our defense, we look upon those who return as heroes—for a little while, at least. But what of the ones who did not give their lives for us, it is true, but gave what was perhaps more—their health, their strength and consequently their own ambitions, their dreams of the future? Do we see to it that they are at least comfortable, or are we tainted with ingratitude, the vice of dogs?

The American Legion of Long Beach sent many Christmas comforts to the invalid boys at Banning, who, the report said, "Were living in squalid conditions." They lost their health, perhaps irretrieveably, to help "make the world safe for democracy." And now they are living "in squalid conditions." They have plenty of time to think; it would be interesting to know what they think of this state of affairs, and of us, the people of the United States, who allow this state of affairs to exist.

The boys at Thornycroft are not living in squalid conditions. Their rooms are light and warm and airy. They have plenty of food, and it is served in the bright cheery dining room in the new $12,000 addition recently built.

The rooms are heated with electricity and there are broad verandas where the boys may sit or lie in the sunshine. Those whose infirmities are not so great that they needs must stay in the hospital occupy the cottages in the broad court. There is a lobby in the new building, where the boys may gather to converse.

Fine Gift Made by Elks

A Christmas gift unsurpassed was the pool and billiard table given the boys by the Elks of Glendale. It has been placed in a room adjoining the lobby and it must be a joy inexpressible when a foggy morning or a rainy day keeps every one indoors.

On the lower floor of the new building are the office, lobby, dining room and kitchen. On the floor above are the living quarters of the proprietor of the sanitarium, Mrs. N. M. Miller. The grounds of Thornycroft cover about six acres.

A poultry yard, dairy and vegetable garden of its own assures Thornycroft the best of everything in the line of milk, eggs and vegetables.

But man lives not by bread alone. A number of patriotic, sympathetic Glendale residents realize this and arrange programs of entertainment occasionally for the amusement of the brave "shut-ins" among the Thornycroft lads, whose philosophy seems to be, like that of Ulysses,

"Though much is taken, much abides; and though
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven—that which we are, we are;
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

Their lives might move Tennyson to even more sublime expression than the theme of Ulysses of old; for their will "to strive, to seek, to find" is the sanctified, more noble, Christian will seeking and striving and at length finding the higher life, the divine qualities of mind and soul. After all, what an opportunity for the development of mind and soul have Thornycroft boys! An opportunity often missed by those of us in the active life of the world, who shine in its strife, perhaps, yet "fluctuate 'twixt blind hopes and blind despairs and never know how with the soul it fares."

Working on Additions

Work has been begun on the additions to the Glendale Union High school, designed to relieve the congestion there.

These additions comprise five bungalow class rooms, one locker room containing lavatories, and the girls' gymnasium. An addition to the boys' gymnasium will be built, also.

Although these buildings, erected at a cost of $60,000, are designed to alleviate the crowded condition of the school, they will be filled as soon as completed, leaving no room for the constant increase in the enrollment, consequent upon the steadily-increasing growth of the city.

The bungalows are next to the main building, facing on Harvard street.

The betting machines at the horse races in Berlin took in nearly 450,000,000 marks in the 113 days of racing this year.

BIGAMY CHARGED

EMIL SPITZER IS ACCUSED OF HAVING TWO WIVES, ALSO BOGUS CHECKS

she learned that her engagement ring had been purchased with a supposedly fictitious check, she vanished, and has not been located up to the present writing.

Spitzer's wife says she knows of more than $1000 in bad checks which he has passed in Los Angeles. She has filed suit for divorce, naming Marjorie Sims as co-respondent.

The Kohler & Chase Piano company knew nothing of Spitzer's trouble until informed by the Glendale police department yesterday afternoon. They state that they will have another representative in Glendale tomorrow.

Wed Soon After Midnight

Judge Miller was called upon to perform a marriage ceremony at just a minute after 12 o'clock New Year's morning. The names of the bride and bridegroom appearing on the Los Angeles county marriage certificate were Marie Marjorie Sims of Taft and Emanuel Spetzer. They were attended by a Mr. Miller and Miss Pettit, both of Los Angeles. The bridegroom asked the judge to keep quiet about the marriage for a while.

On January 4 the Glendale police approached the judge and wanted to know if he knew anything about this Mr. Spetzer. He said that he had married him. He was informed by the police that Mr. Spetzer was already married and had not obtained a divorce from wife No. 1.

Issues Warrant for Bigamy

He was requested to issue a warrant for bigamy against Mr. Spetzer, whose real name it is claimed is Emil Spitzer. The judge was so astounded that he refused to issue a complaint until wife No. 1 appeared with her marriage certificate. The Glendale police brought Mrs. Spitzer No. 1, her marriage certificate and also a photograph of her husband, which left no doubt in the judge's mind that this was the man for whom he had performed the marriage ceremony New Year's morning. The judge at once issued a felony complaint for Emil Spitzer on the charge of bigamy. He was arrested by the police and brought before him yesterday and his bond fixed at $5,000. Being unable to furnish this he was taken to jail.

Mr. Spitzer had an appointment with wife No. 1 to make a trip to Bakersfield in an automobile yesterday. The auto is alleged to have been obtained by means of a bogus check. He had written her telling her of the trip and asking her not to say anything about it to anyone. Wife No. 1 is of the opinion that her husband intended killing her by plunging the automobile down one of the steep banks on the ridge route. She also claims that wife No. 2 was a bridesmaid at her wedding in 1912.

A preliminary hearing of the case will be held in Judge Miller's court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

A. L. BAIRD GIVES ONE MORE INSTANCE OF HOW EVENING NEWS COLUMNS HELP

Another instance of the efficacy of The Glendale Evening News as an advertising medium is furnished by A. L. Baird, one of the directors of the Glendale Research hospital. The hospital was incorporated for $100,000 and Mr. Baird started out in June, 1920, to sell this stock—a thousand shares at $100 a share.

Mr. Baird kept the people informed through advertisements in The Evening News of the policy of the directors and the progress being made. He states that it was by this means that he was able to sell his stock, having disposed of the last share on January 3.

Mr. Baird says he determined to complete his part of the work in December, 1920, and is very much pleased that he came so near doing so.

Special guests of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, of Los Angeles, whom the Strombergs are trying to impress with Glendale's superlative advantages over the Angel City as a place of residence, in order that the Nelsons may be persuaded to move to Glendale.

TWELFTH NIGHT

OLD CUSTOM BEING KEPT IN M'LAUGHLIN WHITE HOME, 519 EAST RALEIGH

In former days, before the affairs of this work-a-day world grew so complex, the Christmas holidays extended to January 6, the Feast of the Three Kings, otherwise the Feast of the Epiphany, celebrating the coming of the Magi to the Christ Child and symbolizing the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

The end of the Christmas season was celebrated with gay parties. The Christmas tree was lighted for the last time, and on the following morning it was shorn of its splendor. These parties were called Twelfth Night celebrations, because they occurred on the twelfth day after Christmas.

Twelfth Night parties are seldom held, nowadays; only a few people, Southerners, largely, who make more of the celebration of Christmas than those of any other section, still keep the custom.

Mrs. McLaughlin White is one who still holds to the old celebration. She entertained with an informal Twelfth Night party this afternoon from 2 to 5 at her home, 579 East Raleigh street.

Guests of honor were Mrs. Harriet White, historian of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Frisbee, of Sheldon, Iowa. Mrs. Frisbee is prominent in D. A. R. work in her home state and is well known to many Iowa tourists and former Iowa residents in the Southland.

Among the guests this afternoon were members of the literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

DIRECTORS MEET

GLENDALE RESEARCH HOSPITAL OFFICIALS MEET; PROGRESS SHOWN BY REPORTS

The monthly meeting of the officers and directors of the Glendale Research hospital was held Monday evening in the office of Roy L. Kent, 130 South Brand boulevard. All of the directors were present, Herman Nelson, A. L. Baird, Spencer Robinson, Dr. J. A. McNaughton and Mr. Kent.

Reports showed that satisfactory progress had been made along all lines and plans were made to open the hospital in February. The building is now in the hands of the plasterers, the electrical work and plumbing are in and ready for inspection.

Mr. Baird, who was in charge of the sale of stock, stated that the entire $100,000 of common stock had been disposed of, the sale of the last share having been made January 3. His report was enthusiastically received.

SUGGEST EVANS

PARTY LEADERS PROPOSE HIM FOR REVENUE COLLECTOR, IN THIS DISTRICT

W. E. Evans of Glendale, well-known attorney and prominent in the Republican party, is being prominently mentioned in connection with the vacancy, which will occur on March 4 in the office of United States collector of revenue, with headquarters in Los Angeles. The present collector is John P. Carter.

Evidently appreciating the work he has done for the party organization, Republican leaders, it has become known to The Evening News, are proposing that Attorney Evans be appointed to some prominent office and, as the vacancy is to occur next March in the office of collector of revenue, his name is being suggested. A Los Angeles newspaper has stated that Attorney Evans would probably be given the appointment.

Private Practice Demands Time

"I have heard that I am being mentioned for the position," said Attorney Evans to The Evening News today, "but I am not a candidate for it; I have not made application for the office. My private practice is demanding my full time and, you know, I but recently resigned as city attorney of Glendale, after ten years of service, because of the very fact that my own business is demanding all of my attention. Of course, I appreciate the fact that Republican party leaders are considering me in connection with such an important position as that of collector of revenue, and I also appreciate the kind words being said about me by my friends, but I am not a candidate for office."

Another important position to be filled after March 4 is that of collector of the port, with headquarters in Los Angeles. Republican party leaders are canvassing the situation to decide upon the best possible man for the place, it is stated.

FOR SAFETY FIRST

TREES WILL BE REMOVED BY CITY TO GIVE TOWER MAN FULL VIEW OF TRAFFIC

As the result of a request made by the attendant at the signal tower on the Southern Pacific company's lines at the intersection of Brand boulevard and the railroad company's tracks, and over the protest of the Southern California Edison company, the board of city trustees has decided, on recommendation of T. W. Watson, city manager, to remove trees that obstruct the view from the tower. The order to remove the trees was made on a motion put by Trustee Dwight Stephenson.

In reporting to the trustees, City Manager Watson said:

"The attendant at the signal tower on the Southern Pacific lines at the intersection of Brand boulevard and the Southern Pacific tracks has called attention to the trees that stand in the parkway on the east side of Brand boulevard north of the tower stating that these trees obstruct the view from the tower and make it difficult for the attendant to observe the Pacific Electric cars as they approach from the north.

Statement Is Verified

"We have personally verified the statement of the attendant and beg to recommend that the two bottle trees nearest the Southern Pacific right of way be removed and that the three nearest palms be kept trimmed closely by the city forester until they have attained sufficient height to not interfere with the view from the tower. The Southern California Edison company owns the lot in front of which these trees stand and on the matter being called to their attention they objected to the removal of the trees. We believe, however, that in the interest of 'safety first' the trees should be removed as recommended.

"T. C. Thornton requests the removal of one acacia tree from the parkway at the south side of his property at the northeast corner of Brand boulevard and California avenue. There are six black acacia trees located in the parkway within a distance of 100 feet at the south of Mr. Thornton's place. These trees are quite large and I believe one of them could be spared without injury to the appearance of the street. I would therefore recommend that the request be granted."

Following out the recommendation of the city manager, the request of Mr. Thornton was granted by the trustees.

LEGION MOVING

HEADQUARTERS CHANGED TO 610-A EAST BROADWAY; ELECTION FRIDAY

The American Legion is moving its headquarters this week from the rooms on North Brand boulevard, which will be occupied by the Los Angeles Trust & Savings bank, to 610-A East Broadway.

The rooms are being furnished in fine shape, a piano being included in the equipment.

The legion is scheduled to have an election for officers on Friday night.

Everything can not be regulated by constitutional amendment—folks should exercise a little common sense to help out.

BUREAU SUSPENDS

LACK OF FUNDS RESULTS IN REALTY BOARD CLOSING UP INFORMATION SECTION

The information bureau instituted two months ago by the Glendale realty board, and located in the First National bank building has been discontinued, due to lack of funds.

The closing of the bureau was due simply and solely to the fact that the realty board, not being a very large organization, had not the funds necessary to maintain it, says E. P. Hayward, secretary of the board. Members of the board have had to pay its expenses from their own pockets. It was hoped by realty board members that it might be maintained until such time as the Chamber of Commerce could be in position to assume its financial support, but this plan was found to be impracticable.

Even in the short period of its existence the bureau has done a surprising amount of good work for Glendale, the realty board's reports show. Many inquiries have been answered by letter, copies of The Evening News have been sent out—this being considered the best way of showing just what Glendale was like, and a great deal of publicity has been given the city in other ways.

Aids in Locating Friends

Many people have come here looking for their friends and knowing nothing of them except that they lived in Glendale. The bureau has located their friends for them in every instance, and a follow-up has shown that in not a few instances these strangers have located in Glendale.

Miss Hattie Halvorson, who had charge of the bureau, came here with but a scant knowledge of Glendale; but, possessed of initiative, intelligence, a consciousness of duty and much business experience, she set about immediately to gather facts and figures about the city. She has compiled an amazing amount of valuable information concerning Glendale and has never failed to satisfy the many and various demands made upon the bureau, the realty board reports.

It is a matter of regret by the board that the bureau had to be given up, but it is hoped that it may be resumed later, states Secretary Hayward of the real estate men's organization and one of those familiar with the work done the past two months by Miss Halvorson.

BANQUET IS HELD

RAMONA INSTITUTE, Y. L. I., HOLDS GATHERING; FINE PROGRAM PRESENTED

The White Inn was the scene of great festivities last evening when thirty-five young ladies from Ramona institute, Y. L. I., assembled to hold their first annual banquet. Mrs. M. J. Brennan, acting as past president, gave the blessing, after which all were seated. Miss Susan Wendell, president of the institute, acted as toastmistress for the evening and gave a toast to each officer, which furnished mirth and laughter. After the dinner the girls left the banquet room and assembled in the main dressing room, where the following program was rendered:

"When You Think of Me," vocal solo by Mrs. Frank Patch, accompanied by Miss M. Finn at the piano.

The Grecian scarf dance and butterfly dance, by Miss Kathleen Woods.

Nocturne in E flat, piano solo by Miss Margaret Finn.

"The 1921 Dance Craze," by Mrs. Frank Clark.

Out of town guests were Mrs. T. T. Whitby of Pittsburg, Mrs. Madeline Walters of Los Angeles and Miss M. La Blanc of Los Angeles.

All spent an enjoyable evening and voted a successful 1921 to the Ramona institute.

LETTER OF THANKS RECEIVED BY EVENING NEWS FROM FLOAT COMMITTEE

Formal notification that the committee in charge of the float representing Glendale in the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena on New Year's appreciates the aid given by The Evening News has been received at this office.

Miss Eva Daniels, secretary-treasurer of the float committee, in a letter to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Evening News, says:

"On behalf of the Glendale float committee allow me to extend sincere thanks for the splendid assistance rendered by your paper towards its success."

Outline Year's Plans

The teachers and officers of the First Congregational Sunday school held a meeting at the home of the superintendent Tuesday evening to consider plans for the work of the new year. A cafeteria supper was a feature of the meeting.

The business community of Germany believes that the German fleet betrayed the Fatherland and caused its ruin and consequently no German trader or shipowner will employ former naval officers, even those who served on warships in the battle of Jutland.

PROFESSOR COOKMAN AND HIS BRIDE ARRIVE; SERVICE IN EAST IS ELABORATE

and Charles Ackerman of Elizabeth.

A reception and dance followed the ceremony. The honeymoon included an extensive trip in the south and west. They are now at home at 215 South Pacific avenue, Glendale.

Mrs. Cookman, who was one of the most popular members of Elizabeth's social and educational circles, is the grandddaughter of the late Congressman Amos Clark, and a great, great granddaughter of Abraham Clark, a signer of the declaration of independence. She is a graduate of the Vail Dean school. The bridegroom is the son of Rev. W. W. Cookman, 215 South Pacific avenue, and a graduate of the University of Southern California. He also has studied at Yale. During the war, Mr. Cookman served in the medical corps as a medical clinical diagnostician and is specializing on animal biology.

Over two hundred guests were invited to attend the wedding.
